

AUSTRALIAN TELEPHONE NETWORKS FAIR USE POLICY

This Fair Use policy applies to Australian Telephone Networks Services.

It is important to Australian Telephone Networks that all eligible Australian Telephone Networks customers are able to access our Services. Accordingly, We have devised a Fair Use Policy which applies to:

(a) usage of Australian Telephone Networks Services and Plans; and (b) any promotions or Services which are advertised by Australian Telephone Networks as subject to the Fair Use Policy (“Fair Use Promotions”).

We reserve the right to vary the terms of the Fair Use Policy from time to time.

Australian Telephone Networks may rely on the Fair Use Policy where:

- (a) your usage of Australian Telephone Networks Services is unreasonable; or
- (b) your participation in a Fair Use Promotion is excessive or unreasonable, as defined below.

Unreasonable Use

It is unreasonable use of Australian Telephone Networks Services where your use of Australian Telephone Networks Services is reasonably considered by Australian Telephone Networks to be excessive, fraudulent or to adversely affect the Australian Telephone Networks Network or other Australian Telephone Networks customers’ use of or access to a Australian Telephone Networks Service or the Australian Telephone Networks Network.

It is unreasonable use of a Fair Use Promotion where Your participation in a Fair Use Promotion is reasonably considered by Australian Telephone Networks to be excessive, fraudulent or to adversely affect the Australian Telephone Networks network or another Australian Telephone Networks customer’s use of or access to a Australian Telephone Networks service or the Australian Telephone Networks network.

Among other things, “fraudulent use” includes resupplying a Australian Telephone Networks Service without Australian Telephone Networks’s consent so that someone else may access or use Australian Telephone Networks Data Services or take advantage of a Fair Use Promotion.

Our Rights

Where You are in breach of this Fair Use Policy, Australian Telephone Networks may contact You to discuss changing Your usage so that it conforms to this Fair Use Policy.

If, after Australian Telephone Networks has contacted you, Your excessive or unreasonable use continues, Australian Telephone Networks may, without further notice to you:

- (a) suspend or limit the Service (or any feature of it) for any period We think is reasonably necessary; and/or
- (b) terminate Your agreement with Australian Telephone Networks.
